We encourage you to be honest in all responses to the questions on the form and to be truthful in all statements to our staff.

Visa validity

The visa generally allows stays of 12 months in Australia, although a stay of up to 12 months can be granted. However, the visa period is determined on a case-by-case basis and may be less than the period requested. An application for 12 months is NOT granted where exceptional circumstances exist.

A visa may be granted for a single entry or multiple entries within a specified period. Generally, this visa allows people to enter Australia within 12 months from the date of grant.

Conditions for a Visitor visa to Australia

Visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions for visitors while in Australia. If you are unwilling or unable to abide by these conditions you should not apply for a visa. If you do not abide by these conditions, your visa may be cancelled or you may be subject to other penalties. If you have any questions or concerns about the conditions, you should go for more information from an Australian Visa Office or office of the Department in Australia.

If you are granted a visa, carefully check the details and conditions on the visa relating to the grant of your visa.

If you have any concerns or questions about the requirements or limitations, you should contact the office that granted the visa. You should not assume that any changes to your immigration status can be made while in Australia.

Visa conditions

The following conditions will be applied to your visa:

Visa condition 801

You must NOT work in Australia.

Visa condition 802

You must NOT study for more than 3 months while in Australia.

The following conditions may be applied to your visa:

Visa condition 803

No further stay

Following an assessment of your application, a visa officer may decide to apply the other conditions on your visa. This means you have further stay conditions and this stops the holder of the visa (including the conditions holder) from being granted further, other entering Australia, be entitled to be granted any other visa, while the holder remains in Australia.

The effect of the visa condition is that if held in a particular way it will apply to restrict the holder's ability to be granted further periods of stay of your visa. It is particularly important if your stay in Australia is to attend a specific event, that you recognise your need to plan your stay around this event within your authorised period of stay as you will not be able to extend your period of stay in Australia.

If the other conditions imposed on your visa, it will be indicated on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa, with the words: (801 + 802 + 803) (804) (805).
